

LAW - information sessions

The University of Strathclyde Law Society is hosting a series of speakers over the coming weeks. These are designed to showcase the careers available to students studying law. Many of our committee members left school to begin studying law at university without a full understanding of the careers open to them upon completion of their studies. Therefore, we would like to invite you to our events to understand what a potential career in law could mean for them and to hear from those that are established within the legal field and hear of their real experiences.

The first of our events is taking place on Wednesday 24th of February at 6pm via Zoom (microphones and cameras off please). Titled, 'What can I do with my Law Degree?', your students will have the opportunity to hear from four established professionals within the legal field. Our guests will discuss the path to their career, as well as answer questions.

We look forward to welcoming:

- Sheriff Tony Kelly – Sheriff at Glasgow Sheriff Court
- Matthew McGovern – Solicitor at McGovern Reid Court Lawyers
- Fiona Armour – Legal Director at MacRoberts LLP
- Catherine Dyer CBE – former Crown Agent and Chief Executive of the Crown Office and Procurator Fiscal Service
