Frequently Asked Questions

Will pupils go straight into S1 or will they experience some form of transition?

New S1 pupils will be fully supported when they arrive at Lesmahagow High School.

We understand pupils will not be familiar with the building or their new classmates so we are keen to offer transition / settling in days() where young people will be able to engage in activities and follow part of their timetable which they would have experienced had their transition days in June gone ahead

How will these transition days look? How will school work with Government guidance?

The school will adhere to and follow the guidance issued by the government and South Lanarkshire Council in relation to social distancing and hygiene procedures. Information will be shared with parents, carers and pupils in due course.

This will also apply to any form of transition, including activities with others.

In relation to transition, we encourage all new S1 parents, carers and pupils to continue to visit our designated P7 Transition webpage and follow our virtual transition programme - <http://www.lesmahagow.s-lanark.sch.uk/p7-transition/>.

What support will be in place to help students feel safe during this time?

Pupils' health and wellbeing is paramount to us and we will endeavour to ensure all supports required are in place for young people to feel safe. At present, we continue to share information on our school through our webpage so that pupils can become familiar with the school and how we operate. We hope this removes some of the anxieties and concerns pupils may have. We are also sharing advice and information on how to support young people's health and wellbeing on our Health and Wellbeing page on our website to ensure pupils receive the best possible advice in preparation for attending high school.

As for specific supports, our fantastic Pupil Support team will be there to support your child throughout their school journey, especially at the transition phase where they may have many questions. If there are particular concerns regarding a pupil's wellbeing, we work closely with agencies who help to support and develop young people's wellbeing. Supports will be accessed as required.

We have also started our super buddy programme to help those who may need more intensive support at his point to help prepare them for high school. We fully appreciate that young people will be nervous, worried and anxious but please be assured that we continue to be creative in finding ways we can help despite the current situation.

My child is worried about getting into trouble for being late to class as they do not know their way around the school.

Everyone, no matter if you are a pupil or an adult, is nervous in new situations and knowing their way around a new building. We fully understand this and without the transition days in June this may be more of a worry. Please be reassured that we intend on supporting pupils when they arrive to help them to understand the layout of the school.

Staff and other pupils are more than happy to help our new arrivals get from class to class, and staff will be understanding of this situation.

How do I order my child's blazer?

Advice and information on ordering blazers can be found in the uniform letter on our P7 Transition webpage. A copy of this letter can be accessed by clicking on this link - <https://tinyurl.com/3ncwmkw9>

Are blazers compulsory?

Blazers are compulsory and we are proud of our uniform and the identity our blazer gives us. However, we are aware that in our current climate purchasing blazers may prove difficult for various reasons. With this in mind, we would understand if the purchase of blazers would be delayed.

Are black trainers with black laces be acceptable?

Students are required to wear black footwear in line with our school uniform policy. As long as footwear is all black, including laces, then this would be appropriate. Further information on our uniform policy can be found in our P7 Transition Booklet -

Where are children to go on their first day of school?

All new S1 pupils should go to the netball court at the front of the school and remain there when the bell goes. They will then receive instructions by a member of SMT as to the plan for the day.

When are you allowed to have lunch outside of the school?

Pupils arriving in S1 will remain in the school grounds during lunch times for a period of time. This is to ensure they are safe and become familiar with the school before navigating their way to the local shops for their lunch. We revise this throughout the first few months of S1 and will advise when pupils are able to go outside of the school grounds for their lunch.

Will all children from the same school be in the same class?

When pupils come to high school, a big part of this is meeting new people and forming friendships with others. This is a really important part in developing their social wellbeing. We aim to ensure that in all four S1 classes there is a mixture of pupils from our associated primary schools. We liaise closely with primary colleagues when composing classes.
